INTERNATIONAL NOTICE OF ELECTION NOT TO BE RECOGNIZED AS A PERSON
BEFORE THE LAW, AND TERMINATION OF SURETY AND UNDERWRITING

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, McTigue, Jennifer Ann, a living woman, being of sound mind and having reached the age of majority, do hereby make the election of my own free will, act, and deed NOT to be recognized as a person before the law, and hereby terminate all agreements binding me as surety for State parties or to underwrite their contracts through exercise of my unalienable, inalienable and imprescriptible right of self-determination.

Black's Law 6th edition defines election as follows:

Election. The act of choosing or selecting one or more from a greater number of persons, things, courses, or rights. The choice of an alternative. The internal, free, and spontaneous separation of one thing from another, without compulsion, consisting in intention and will. The selection of one person from a specified class to discharge certain duties in a state, corporation, or society. An expression of choice by the voters of a public*

The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ("ICCPR"), Article 1, paragraph 1, states:

All peoples have the right of self-determination. By virtue of that right they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development.

ICCPR, Article 16 states:

Everyone shall have the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights ("UDHR"), Article 6 states:

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

It is my free will choice, act and deed, by making this election of self-determination, NOT to be recognized as a legal person and to ONLY be recognized as a living woman and divine living soul, retaining all unalienable, inalienable and imprescriptible rights.

The United States of America, including its de facto administrative entity the United States/a.k.a./United States Government, as a State party and signatory to the UDHR and ICCPR is obligated to express International Covenants into their Domestic Laws, which include the Declaration of Independence, Articles of Confederation and the limitations to Government power set forth in the Constitution of the United States of America.

ICCPR, Article 1, Paragraph 3 states:

The States Parties to the present Covenant, including those having responsibility for the administration of Non-Self-Governing and Trust Territories, shall promote the realization of the right of self-determination, and shall respect that right, in conformity with the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations.

ICCPR, Article 2, states:

1. Each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to respect and to ensure to all individuals within its territory and subject to its jurisdiction the rights recognized in the present Covenant, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

2. Where not already provided for by existing legislative or other measures, each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes to take the necessary steps, in accordance with its constitutional processes and with the provisions of the present Covenant, to adopt such laws or other measures as may be necessary to give effect to the rights recognized in the present Covenant.

3. Each State Party to the present Covenant undertakes:

(a) To ensure that any person whose rights or freedoms as herein recognized are violated shall have an effective remedy, notwithstanding that the violation has been committed by persons acting in an official capacity;

(b) To ensure that any person claiming such a remedy shall have his right thereto determined by competent judicial, administrative or legislative authorities, or by any other competent authority provided for by the legal system of the State, and to develop the possibilities of judicial remedy;

(c) To ensure that the competent authorities shall enforce such remedies when granted.

The State parties have a duty to undertake and support this notice of election, and failure by the United States of America and its administrators as State parties, to immediately recognize this remedy of election, and termination of surety and underwriting, shall constitute holding the living woman, McTigue, Jennifer Ann to involuntary servitude as surety and underwriter to State parties interests, contracts, and compacts in violation of the UDHR and ICCPR.

ICCPR, Article 8 states:

1. No one shall be held in slavery; slavery and the slave-trade in all their forms shall be prohibited.

2. No one shall be held in servitude.

UDHR, Article 4 states:

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

The United States of America including all administrators, agents, and agencies, upon recording of this Notice, is forever prohibited from compelling the living woman, McTigue, Jennifer Ann to contract through the probation, detention or arrest of the person/vessel, JENNIFER ANN MCTIGUE, as surety to indemnify the State parties against loss, or as underwriter, as the State parties retain primary active degree of fault. The State parties have knowingly participated in such acts through the presumption of "voluntary servitude" and 14th amendment citizenship, which is hereby denied and rebutted by Notice.

All legal rights to the use of the ens legis Name, JENNIFER ANN MCTIGUE have been assigned to NEKAI CORP as Trustee, the registered owner of the Name as a trademark under Class 36 for protection from use as surety and for underwriting services, approved and published without objection by the United States Patent and Trademark Office under serial number 86176391 and under Delaware Trademark Registration Number 201340216TMREG.

State parties have waived all sovereign, governmental and judicial immunity for the unauthorized use of JENNIFER ANN MCTIGUE by and through their open and notorious, Title 15, United States Code, Section 1122 which states:

(a) Waiver of sovereign immunity by the United States

The United States, all agencies and instrumentalities thereof, and all individuals, firms, corporations, other persons acting for the United States and with the authorization and consent of the United States, shall not be immune from suit in Federal or State court by any person, including any governmental or nongovernmental entity, for any violation under this chapter.

To assist in the facilitation of this election and termination of surety and underwriting, a NOTICE OF QUITCLAIM AND DEED OF SURRENDER yielding up for the uses of will the person/vessel and social insurance contract to the State parties, has been delivered by post registry Numbers RA433296180US and RB828160477US, accepted without dishonor or notice of deficiency on May 01, 2014 and May 02, 2014 respectively.

All equity, Property and products of collateral, held by State parties on behalf of McTigue, Jennifer Ann, as beneficiary and heir by intestate succession, has been claimed and assigned into private trust, under the available remedy, claim of right, and claim of restitution for contribution and indemnification under a policy of maritime insurance number 576176974, through a master non-UCC lien perfected as an agricultural lien recorded under Delaware UCC Number 20142958080 against all recorded interests in Debtor(s) Property therein listed. This claim of restitution for contribution and indemnification is the only available remedy that is not in violation of public policy and operates hereafter as a constructive trust for the protection of property and rights of McTigue, Jennifer Ann.

All reversionary interest in the Property has been assigned to and for the account of the United States, pursuant to State party's open offer codified at Title 12, United States Code, Section 95a(2), under Delaware UCC assignment Number 20142959039, as acceptance of the open offer for the extension of hospitality, offer of safe harbor, immunity, and for the delivery of a diplomatic passport for safe passage, delivered by post registry Number EK185876164US, which has been accepted by the State parties without dishonor or notice of deficiency on July 30, 2014, signed for by agent C. Gentry.

The United States of America, Department of State, has annexed with full faith and credit, the authenticated live birth records of McTigue, Jennifer Ann as evidence of living status and achievement of the age of majority and absolute priority claim and superior title under Authentication Numbers 14041799-2 and 14041799-9.

ICCRP, Article 11 states:

No one shall be imprisoned merely on the ground of inability to fulfill a contractual obligation.

The State parties are responsible for the perpetual insolvency of the United States Government set forth by Chapter 48, 48 stat. 112, recorded in the 73rd Congress as Public Law 73-10, also known as House Joint Resolution 192 removing all ability to perform on contracts through removal of lawful money as a form of payment. The State parties may not compel performance on contractual obligations or force McTigue, Jennifer Ann to contract as surety without violating public policy and International Law and Covenant.

UDHR, Article 30 states:

Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

The State parties cannot place any restriction on the rights and beliefs of McTigue, Jennifer Ann, that destroys her unalienable, inalienable and imprescriptible rights on the basis of this election and may not discriminate based upon her beliefs.

The United Nations Charter, Article 8 states:

The United Nations shall place no restrictions on the eligibility of men and women to participate in any capacity and under conditions of equality in its principal and subsidiary organs.

I, McTigue, Jennifer Ann elect my right to participate only in my peaceful capacity as a living woman and divine living soul, free from the obligation to contract with State parties as underwriter, or to act as surety indemnifying State parties from loss, as a freedom of conscience and spiritual belief, which shall include this choice for my living progeny under my care.

ICCPR, Article 18 states:

1. Everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion. This right shall include freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice, and freedom, either individually or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in worship, observance, practice and teaching.

2. No one shall be subject to coercion which would impair his freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice.

3. Freedom to manifest one's religion or beliefs may be subject only to such limitations as are prescribed by law and are necessary to protect public safety, order, health, or morals or the fundamental rights and freedoms of others.

4. The States Parties to the present Covenant undertake to have respect for the liberty of parents and, when applicable, legal guardians to ensure the religious and moral education of their children in conformity with their own convictions.

No State party may restrict my freedom of travel or movement for peaceful and non-commercial purpose. I, McTigue, Jennifer Ann declare that I travel in peace without commercial intent hereafter and forever.

ICCPR, Article 12 states:

1. Everyone lawfully within the territory of a State shall, within that territory, have the right to liberty of movement and freedom to choose his residence.

2. Everyone shall be free to leave any country, including his own.

UDHR, Article 13 states:

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state.

2. Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

The ICCPR was ratified by the U.S. Senate on 2 April 1992 (138 Congressional Record S4783-84), and came into force in the USA on 8 September 1992. Executive Order 13107 of 10 December 1998 (63 Federal Register 68991) requires all federal agencies to maintain a current awareness of United States international human rights obligations that are relevant to their functions and shall perform such functions so as to respect and implement those obligations fully.

In furtherance of the peaceful ability to travel without hindrance by State parties, a Declaration of Peace and Indemnity Bond # HOMFTBOE00015 was delivered by Post Registry Number RA433296145US, upon the condition of immunity and safe passage, and was accepted without refusal or dishonor by State parties on March 04, 2014.

State parties, by acceptance of the Peace Bond and the assignment of reversionary interest have an obligation to acknowledge this election and to provide safe harbor and travel documents for safe passage without delay.

I, McTigue, Jennifer Ann exercise my free will not to be a subject or a person under the power or authority of State parties, reserving and retaining all rights NOT to contract with State parties, and make my intent of peaceful self-governance known by Notice to all the world on separate and equal station to State parties. I have in good faith ratified by signature the Declaration of Independence, attached hereto, and have by the actions outlined herein, pledged my life, fortune and sacred honor to the betterment of mankind as consideration in exchange for these rights, safe harbor and safe passage for recognition by State parties as a peaceful living man.

So it is and forever shall be.
